Dear Murphy First,

I'm writing this on Halloween day. You may have already known this, but before Halloween was all about costumes and candy, it was (and still is) a Church holy day. We call it All Hallows Eve. Hallows is an old word meaning "saint" or "holy person." The holy day itself is Nov. 1, All Saints Day. As it is with Christian (and Jewish) traditions, we start celebrating big feast days on the evening before (think Christmas Eve). Therefore, Oct. 31 is All Hallows Eve.

Wesley called this day "a festival I truly love." You might wonder why he'd say that. Our cultural celebrations seem to pack in as much as we can that is scary and even grotesque. Think of all the horror movies that come out around now. That's out of step with what the days are truly for.

For us in the Church, All Hallows Eve and All Saints day isn't a preoccupation with or fear of death. It's about celebrating Jesus' triumph over death. We think about all those saints whose lives have pointed us to Jesus, who have died, and are part of the "Church triumphant." We say, "Where, oh death, is thy sting?! Where, oh grave, thy victory?!"

It is, though, a time for contemplating that we are all finite, that we will die. The psalmist counsels, "Teach us to number our days, so we may gain a heart of wisdom" (Ps. 90:12). In this way, we learn to live as those who are prepared to die—following in the ways of Jesus, and trusting God with our living and with our dying.

Given all of that, and the change in seasons, it's a natural time to be thinking about "next things." Life after death. Life after loss.

When the leaves start falling, that is an ending. But it is not THE end.

We have lots of endings in our lives. The death of a loved one. Contemplating our own death. The end of a relationship. The end of a job, or a project—sometimes a good ending, sometimes not.

But what does the gospel of Jesus teach us about life after these experiences? Does death or failure get the last word? How long does sorrow last? Do we really get over a painful ending? Or do we work through it with the grace of God?

During November I want to think about some of these things with you on Sunday morning...about how we find "Life After _____."

On this coming Sunday, "All Saints Sunday," I always think about how special it is to belong to the communion of the saints—not just those who've died, but those who live (you!). One significant way we participate in communion with one another is through a small group experience—whether Sunday school or mid-week. Be on the lookout for opportunities in November and Advent (December) where you can join with others in growing in faith and fellowship.

Abiding in Christ,

Pastor Wil

Charge Conference

On Sunday, Nov. 12, with authorization from our District Superintendent, the Rev. Dr. Jae Lee, we will conduct our annual Charge Conference immediately following the worship service. We will celebrate ministry from this past year, and look to the year ahead. This also includes receiving and approving our 2024 budget. Please plan to attend to learn more about ministry and life in Murphy FUMC.

Voting members of the Charge Conference are those who are on Administrative Council, though everyone is invited and can ask questions and engage in conversation.

Decorate
Church

It's not yet Thanksgiving, but we're already thinking about Advent! This year, we're decorating the Sanctuary on Sunday, Nov. 26 from 4-6pm. We want this to be fun for everyone, all ages. Just like everyone pitches in and decorates their home for Christmas, we do the same. We hope to have a simple meal for those who are here helping.

Murphy First UMC Preschool Update

Our preschool committee has decided on a name for our school: the FUMC Children's Center! The Children's Center committee has been busy the last few months working toward a hopeful start on January 10.

We are working diligently right now to meet that timeline, and to do so will need your help! We will need help cleaning and moving furniture from the warehouse (where White Tag goods are stored) to the church. The more help we have the quicker we can be. If you want to know when that will happen so you can try to help, let Pastor Wil know (pastor@murphyfirstumc.org).

Above all keep this effort in your prayers. The recent closures* of childcare centers in our region highlighted the dangerous lack of childcare and preschool options in our area. We believe this ministry will be a gift to our community!

*thankfully several including the one in Murphy were bought and were able to remain open for submitting information for the December edition of the newsletter!

Monday, Nov. 27, 2023

Our deepest sympathies for Sara Sherrill and family on the passing of her husband, Dub.

The Mission Team will once again sponsor the Alternative Christmas. This is an opportunity for all of us to support local charities in the name of a friend or loved one. The Mission Team will be providing more information during church on November 19 and 26, and in the bulletin and newsletters. Alternative Christmas donations will be taken on December 3 and December 10. Get Ready to Give!!!

The s'mores and popcorn station will be passing out goodies in front of the church during the Murphy Christmas Lighting and Parade the evening of Saturday, December 2nd. Come and join the fun!

WILLING HANDS: All hands on deck for the holidays!

Yep! It's that time again when everyone gets busy with holiday activities. We are starting our Christmas Box Project now and will be collecting donations all through November in order to help provide Christmas for students at Murphy High School, Middle School, and Elementary School. All donations must be collected by Sunday, November 26th, so that we can spend the last week of November shopping for gifts and gift cards for the kids. Because of your generosity, we were able to help around 60 students enjoy the holidays last year and we hope to be able to help as many or more this year. During that last week, we will also be getting ready for "Memories with Santa" which will happen on Saturday, December 2nd, in the morning in our Fellowship Hall. The kids get to tell Santa what they want for Christmas and get their picture taken with him. They also get to decorate a frame for the picture and get a goodie bag of treats which includes a Christmas Bible book, reindeer food, snacks for the kids, coloring pages, etc.

Our next Willing Hands meeting will be at 11:30 am (Time Change!!) on Wednesday, November 15th, in the Fellowship Hall. The Greeting Card Ministry will start creating cards at 10:30 am if you can come a little early to help. During our meeting we will be planning the Christmas Box Project and Memories with Santa events.

Know that all women in our church family and also the community are invited to these meetings and events. Feel free to contact any member of our United Women in Faith group or call Karen Watson (828-361-9520) or Nancy Jo Willis (850-428-3636) with questions, comments, ideas, etc.
